CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION OF THE ATLANTIC STATES: REPORT OF THE SECRETARY-TREASURER 1955-1956

The Forty-Ninth Annual Meeting of the Classical Association of the Atlantic States was held in Baltimore, Maryland, Friday and Saturday, April 27 and 28, 1956, with the Johns Hopkins University as host. All sessions, including the dinner meeting, were held in the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

The annual business meeting of the Association was held in the Carnival Room of the Lord Baltimore Hotel on Saturday afternoon, April 28, beginning at 2:00 o'clock, with President John F. Latimer presiding.

The report of the Secretary-Treasurer showed that as of March 31, 1956, the Association had 637 members, of which 472 were subscribers to The Classical Weekly. In his report of the Financial Account of the Association he stated that Receipts through the fiscal year beginning April 1, 1955, and ending March 31, 1956, amounted to $3134.73, and that Expenditures during the same period amounted to $3177.27, leaving a Deficit of $42.54.

In his report of the Financial Account of The Classical Weekly, the Secretary-Treasurer announced Receipts in the amount of $6649.70 for the fiscal year, and Expenditures of $6145.38 for the same period, leaving a balance of $504.32.

In his statement of the Rome Scholarship Fund of the Association for the period extending from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, the Secretary-Treasurer reported Receipts and Balance totalling $356.53. Expenditures covering two awards (1955 and 1956) amounted to $400.00, leaving a Deficit in the Account of $43.47.

The Secretary-Treasurer reported a balance of $201.38 in the CAAS Savings Account with the Standard Savings and Loan Association, Wilkinsburg, Pennsylvania. His report for the CAAS

Endowment Fund with the Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank of New York showed a balance of $1570.02.

A motion was made and seconded that the report of the Secretary-Treasurer be approved. Motion carried.

President Latimer announced the name of Miss Ann M. Scheible of Rochester, New York, as the recipient of the Rome Scholarship Award for the current year.

A motion was made and seconded that the name of Mr. Lawrence V. Updegraff, of the New York Times, be received for Honorary Membership in the Association. Motion carried.

Professor Edward B. Stevens, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, presented the following report for that Committee:

Be it resolved, That the Classical Association of the Atlantic States express and record its profound gratitude to the persons and agencies who have made this convention of 1956 a happy and profitable event. To the Baltimore Convention Bureau, and to the management of the Lord Baltimore Hotel, we are obliged for a splendid location and excellent facilities. Our very special thanks are due to the Local Committee on Arrangements and Hospitality, and to this committee's gracious chairman, Professor James W. Poultney of the Johns Hopkins University, and we affirm our sincere appreciation of the warm welcome we have been made to feel by the greetings extended to us by Professor Henry T. Rowell of the Johns Hopkins University, by Dean Elizabeth Geen of Goucher College, by Dr. John Fisher, Superintendent of the Baltimore Public School System, and by Father Leo J. McCormack, Superintendent of Schools in the Archdiocese of Baltimore.

Respectfully submitted,

Shirley Smith
E. B. Stevens

A motion was made and seconded that the report of the Committee on Resolutions be accepted. Motion carried.

Professor John S. Kieffer, Chairman of the Committee on Audit, presented the following report for that Committee:

Mr. President: Your Committee on Audit has examined the records of the Secretary-Treasurer of C.A.A.S., and finds everything in order. The Committee commends the Secretary-Treasurer for the accuracy and clarity of his financial accounting.

Respectfully submitted,

Shirley Smith
Gordon Kirkwood
John S. Kleffer, Chairman

INDEX TO VOLUME XLIX

The present Index, following in general the plan adopted in Volume XLVII, exhibits separately (I) Contributors; (II) Contents, arranged with reference to the main types of material appearing in this periodical (Articles, etc.; Book Reviews; Notes and News; Books Received); (III) a Subject Index, in which an attempt has been made to classify this material according to the divisions employed in the standard annual bibliography of classical studies, J. Marouzeau and J. Ernst, L'Année Philologique (latest issue Vol. XXV [bibliography of 1954]; Paris: Les Belles Lettres, 1955).

Certain conventions, e.g., in II. 2 (Book Reviews) and in III (Subject Index), that of indicating reviewers by enclosing their names in parentheses immediately after the designation of books reviewed, will be familiar from earlier volumes.

OVID RECALLED

by L. P. WILKINSON

For too long Ovid has been neglected; probably because too many 'do' the duller parts of him at school and never get over their first distaste. Here is a second introduction — to Ovid himself and to his whole work — that will banish prejudice. Mr. Wilkinson communicates his own obvious enjoyment and understanding of Ovid. He tells what is known of the poet's life and through his work shows him as a wit, the product of an age of refinement, an artist with conscious mastery of a great range of literary artifice, a rich and graceful poet. He also shows him as one of the great formative influences on European literary and artistic modes — painters, poets, musicians, weavers of tapestries, even makers of porcelain, have all drawn on him. Ovid's world of mythology (created in Metamorphoses which is analyzed in detail) fascinated such writers as Shakespeare, Milton and Goethe and attracted artists as diverse as Rubens, John Martin and Picasso. OVID RECALLED will be eagerly read by those who already know and love Ovid; those who don't will be enticed to further acquaintance.

CAESAR'S GALLIC CAMPAIGNS

"Almost a 'Must' for every Teacher of Caesar"

—Classical Outlook

$3.<sup>00</sup>

A new English version by
LT. COL. S. G. BRADY

Written by a modern soldier for modern teachers and students, this book has been enthusiastically welcomed as collateral reading for both high school and college Latin classes. Not a pony, but a crisply written guide to Caesar's campaigns. Included are maps, illustrations, and interpretative notes on the minutiae of Roman warfare and organization.
